

THE LAST SUPPER

... a work God
has been doing since the beginning...

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.

Gen 3:15 NIV

The disciples' world went dark

By this time it was about noon, and darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock. The light from the sun was gone. And suddenly, the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn down the middle. Then Jesus shouted, "Father, I entrust my spirit into your hands!" And with those words he breathed his last.

Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. Then the disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed— for until then they still hadn't understood the Scriptures that said Jesus must rise from the dead. Then they went home.

Joh 20:1-20 NLT

She turned to leave and saw someone standing there. It was Jesus, but she didn't recognize him... "Mary!" Jesus said. She turned to him and cried out, "Rabboni!" (which is Hebrew for "Teacher")... Mary Magdalene found the disciples and told them, "I have seen the Lord!"

Joh 20:1-20 NLT

That Sunday evening the disciples were meeting behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them! “Peace be with you,” he said. As he spoke, he showed them the wounds in his hands and his side.

the Risen One, turns our grief into joy

He canceled the record of the charges against us and took it away by nailing it to the cross. In this way, he disarmed the spiritual rulers and authorities. He shamed them publicly by his victory over them on the cross.

And for those who lived in the land where death casts its shadow, a light has shined.
