A young man with short dark hair is sitting in a wooden armchair, facing right. He is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and dark pants. He is holding an open book in his lap and looking down at it. The room is dimly lit, with bright sunlight streaming in through a window behind him, creating a strong lens flare effect. To his left is a small wooden side table with a vase on it. To his right is a bookshelf filled with books. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and contemplative.

Now may the God of peace himself
sanctify you
completely,
and may your Whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus's will

“Father, if you are willing, please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.” Then an angel from heaven appeared and strengthened him. He prayed more fervently, and he was in such agony of spirit that his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.

With Jesus you can

The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

1 Cor 10:13 NLT

With Jesus you can

For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love.

Gal 5:13 NLT

With Jesus you can

That's why those who are still under the control of their sinful nature can never please God. But you are not controlled by your sinful nature. You are controlled by the Spirit if you have the Spirit of God living in you. (And remember that those who do not have the Spirit of Christ living in them do not belong to him at all.)
