conversations with Jesus

- Jesus – tired, thirsty & hungry
- Living water – never thirst again
- All the disqualifications
- “I am the Messiah”

conversations with Jesus

The woman left her water jar beside the well and ran back to the village, telling everyone, “Come and see a man who told me everything I ever did! Could he possibly be the Messiah?” So the people came streaming from the village to see him.

Joh 4:27-42 NLT

A person wearing a red hoodie and an orange jacket is sitting on a dark wooden bench, viewed from behind. They are looking out over a body of water under a grey, overcast sky. The ground is covered with dry, brown leaves. A dark, vertical shape, possibly a tree trunk, is on the left side of the frame.

conversations with Jesus

Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked to find him talking to a woman, but none of them had the nerve to ask, “What do you want with her?” or “Why are you talking to her?”

Joh 4:27-42 NLT

conversations with Jesus

Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus, “Rabbi, eat something.” But Jesus replied, “I have a kind of food you know nothing about.” “Did someone bring him food while we were gone?” the disciples asked each other. Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work.

Joh 4:27-42 NLT

A person wearing a brown jacket and a red beanie is sitting on a dark wooden bench, viewed from behind. They are looking out at a calm body of water under a grey, overcast sky. The ground is covered with dry, brown leaves. A dark, vertical shape, possibly a tree trunk, is on the far left. A black rectangular box with the word "nourishment" in white text is overlaid on the person's back.

conversations with Jesus

You know the saying, 'Four months between planting and harvest.' But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe for harvest. The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike!

Joh 4:27-42 NLT

conversations with Jesus

You know the saying, 'One plants and another harvests.'
And it's true. I sent you to harvest where you didn't plant;
others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the harvest.

conversations with Jesus

Many Samaritans from the village believed in Jesus because the woman had said, “He told me everything I ever did!” When they came out to see him, they begged him to stay in their village. So he stayed for two days, long enough for many more to hear his message and believe.

Then they said to the woman, “Now we believe, not just because of what you told us, but because we have heard him ourselves. Now we know that he is indeed the Savior of the world.”

But these are written so that you may continue to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name.

satisfied

satisfied

For he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

Psa 107:9 NLT

satisfied

You satisfy me more than the richest feast. I will praise you with songs of joy.

Psa 63:5 NLT

satisfied

Why spend your money on food that does not give you strength? Why pay for food that does you no good? Listen to me, and you will eat what is good. You will enjoy the finest food.

Isa 55:2 NLT

satisfied

The LORD will guide you continually, giving you water when you are dry and restoring your strength. You will be like a well-watered garden, like an ever-flowing spring.
