

Jesus

A person wearing a red hood and a brown jacket is sitting on a dark wooden bench, facing away from the camera and looking out over a body of water. The ground is covered with dry, brown leaves. The word 'Jesus' is written in large, blue, serif capital letters across the middle of the image, partially obscuring the person and the background.

conversations with Jesus

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. “Rabbi,” his disciples asked him, “why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents’ sins?” “It was not because of his sins or his parents’ sins,” Jesus answered. “This happened so the power of God could be seen in him.”

Joh 9:1-3 NLT

why?

... I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger from Satan to torment me and keep me from becoming proud. Three different times I begged the Lord to take it away. Each time he said, “My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.”

2 Cor 12:7-10 NLT

So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me. That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong."

2 Cor 12:7-10 NLT

conversations with Jesus

“Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man’s eyes.”

Joh 9:6 NLT

Then the man went
and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had
healed him.

Joh 5:15 NLT

“...So why should
you be angry with
me for healing a man on the Sabbath?”

Joh 7:23 NLT

Then the LORD God
formed the man
from the dust of the ground. He breathed
the breath of life into
the man's nostrils,
and the man became
a living person.

Gen 2:7 NLT

conversations with Jesus

He told him, “Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam” (Siloam means “sent”). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!
